

Long Tall Sally

by Lori-Ann Murphy

What she needs is time to breathe! We are approaching Springtime! Such a glorious time of year for those of us who follow bugs and fish around the world. There's an old proverb that says, 'Women hold up half the sky.' With Springtime and Mother's Day coming soon, let's celebrate a time to flex our fly rods and smile back to places that bring us peace. Join RWFFA for unforgettable fly fishing adventures in 2025 and 2026! Plan your perfect trip or school now to create cherished memories and lasting happiness. At Reel Women Fly Fishing Adventures, we believe fishing is more than a hobby—it's a chance to connect with nature, challenge yourself, and find peace and purpose. Whether you're a seasoned angler or just beginning, there's a place for you in our community of inspiring women.

Our trips and schools offer more than just lessons—they're about building friendships, creating unforgettable memories, and embracing the beauty of the outdoors together. Now is the time to take that step, join us, and experience the magic of fly fishing in a way that will stay with you forever. We can't wait to share this journey with you.

It's one of our all-time favorite things to do... share our heart and soul for Anita Colton had a dream of becoming a fly fishing guide on her home waters of the Delaware River. She never knew just how busy she was going to be!

Now one of our great women guides in the USA - she started it all on the Madison River in our RWFFA Women's Guide School.

the love of rivers! A fly fishing intensive that will take you to your fly fishing and rowing ambitions. Some women want to become guides, some women want to row their friends, family and themselves! This course is open to women anglers who have a desire to learn to row a drift boat safely and become better anglers.
