

Life on the Fly...

by Lori-Ann Murphy

My Top 5 Fish Talk for dry fly fishing:

1. "We hunted heads all day."
2. "Sippers."
3. "Gulpers."
4. "Foam is home!"
5. "Open wide for chunky!"

True story. One time during the Jackson Hole One Fly - which has been an annual event for decades, a miracle happened to an angler fishing with Gary. Gary is a great story teller but this was witnessed so we all believe it to be true.

He had a very good angler he was guiding from New Zealand - fishing one of Gary's Chernobyl Ant patterns. They were fishing on the Snake River south of Jackson where there is really fun pocket water up against the banks. He fired the big dry tight to a rising trout, the trout eats the fly and then the fly is broken from the tippet.

A goal during this competition - where anglers are allowed only one fly for the day, is to return with your fly for an extra 25 points. Of course if you lose your fly while fishing, you are out of luck.

So now the bug is gone. But Gary says, "Wait!" And he held the boat in position as they watched the "Fat Albert" Chernobyl Ant float back up to the surface! Gary nets the fly, ties it back to the tippet and away they go. I believe they came in with a pretty high score that day!

We put together a very special RWFFA trip featuring dry fly fishing during prime "dry fly" time on the Snake River for this August. Check it out! This River is loaded with Snake River Fine Spotted Cutthroat that love to eat dry flies! Parachute Adams, Royal Wulff's and Stimulators - all great old standards that still work wonders. Or, try a pattern you invented. There have been some amazing dry flies created and eaten on the Snake River. Maybe that's why there are so many world renowned fly tiers in Jackson Hole. I'm excited and plan on casting and fishing with you on a great river that is very special to me.

Surrounded by Wyoming’s natural beauty, Black Powder Ranch offers the opportunity to experience the “Old West” at its finest. You can fish the Hoback River, take in the natural wildlife or gather round the campfire without ever leaving the property.

Snake River

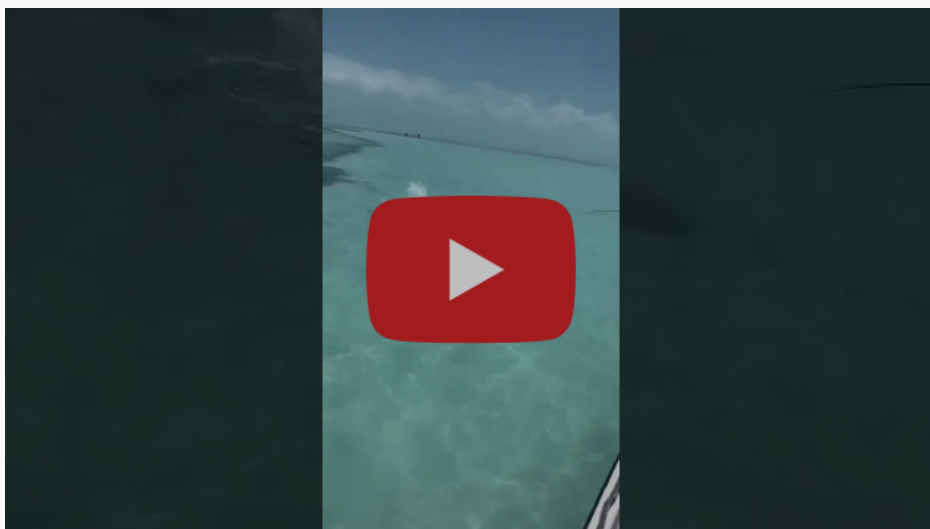

From Snake River Angler's: The Snake River is one of the most cherished streams in the world of fly fishing. As a permitted outfitter in Grand Teton National Park and Bridger Teton National Forest, Snake River Angler's offers more sections of the river than any other outfitter in the region. Snake River full day trips occur on eight sections of river within Grand Teton National Park, Bridger-Teton National Forest, and parcels under the authority of the Bureau of Land Management (BLM). These are considered amongst the most beautiful sections of river on which we guide, with majestic views of the Teton Range, the Gros Ventre Range, and Snake River Canyon. Well over 95 percent of the trout on this river are native Snake River Fine-Spotted Cutthroat trout and Yellowstone Cutthroat trout. The Snake River is considered to have the strongest population of Native Cutthroat left in the Rocky Mountain West.

4 nights lodging at Black Powder Ranch, 3 days shared guided fly fishing from drift boats with Snake River Anglers, all meals, clinics and use of any needed fly fishing equipment.

Single occupancy: $2499. Double occupancy: $2399
