

Life on the Fly...

by Lori-Ann Murphy

My Top 5 "Fly Fishing Queen" priorities:

The bow of the drift boat.

The heart of the riffle.

The best place in a steelhead run.

The bow of the flats boat.

The bow to the silver king.

Let it be known to the world that all fly fishing mother's gladly accept any of these places.
Happy Mother's Day!

The Mother's Day Caddis Hatch on the Yellowstone River is something people only hope to find in their lifetime. The river is blanketed with caddis and fish quickly become gorged. It doesn't do an angler much good showing up with a caddis pattern once the hatch has exploded. But if you happen to show up right before the fireworks, look out.

Spey rods are super fun when they are set up for swinging caddis. Spey style fly fishing on rivers for trout has found its own niche. Take a little 5 or 6 wt spey outfit and swing caddis. I bet you find yourself giggling.

I'll still never forget when I exploded from a nap in the back of my pick up truck. I was covered in caddis...and the hatch had just started. All plans went on hold including showing up for a RWFFA trip on the Bighorn. Hwy 90 has way too many places to pull off for a quick nap from a long drive. Well, let's just say I startled a few fellow anglers in the parking lot. No one knew I was back there until I screamed, "Yellowstone, Mother's Day, Caddis Hatch!" It was off the charts fun. These are the moments that stick with us!

—Happy Fishing!, L-A
