Long Tall Sally

by Lori-Ann Murphy

Our SLAM Reel Women are showing up Saturday! They will fly into Belize City International and go through Immigration, then pick up their luggage and head to Customs. Belize City is a small airport and San Pedro is even a much smaller airport. It's a 16 minute flight from Belize City to San Pedro.

We'll all meet up for introductions and big hugs.

This is a special group - all of these women at some time decided to come on a "Reel Women" trip - by themselves. Now, years later, we gather around Delcia and Norma's amazing dinners and let the fish talk begin!

I'm excited to share that sight fishing for baby tarpon has been outstanding. Snook, bones and yes, permit are around as well.

I'm not sure if I like the beginning, middle or end of the trips as my favorite time. It's really hard to decide. But I do love the stories about these women reclaiming their sense of adventure, challenging themselves and discovering the joy of living in the moment.

By the end of the trip, I witness the shift. Fishing the flats of Ambergris Caye requires patience, resilience and the beauty of stepping into the unknown. Precious memories will last but it's the confidence learned from "doing the thing" that changes us.

I hope to greet you here on the island soon.

Holiday hugs and cheer,
