The Beach Walk!

Life on the Fly By Lori-Ann Murphy

Yesterday I took a little beach walk - it's our daily morning walk, or one of them anyway. In this season of giving and sharing it seems like the best thing to do is share our neighborhood. My friend Rachel has been fishing her neighborhood in the Adirondacks showing me her daily prize - usually a beautiful trout. She had some Atlantic Salmon when she was up north, so she's had a good season on the northeast coast of the US. This is all comforting for me because the act of fly fishing - and with that, the sharing of stories and pictures is something that triggers a common understanding that our natural world is just a flat out spectacular place to explore. We repeat our quests, often not knowing what drives us to go outside. But we do, and that keeps us forever young.

When you look at this clip you see why bonefish are called, "Ghosts of the Flats." Part of the puzzle is finding them, and then watching their behavior is an added bonus. The fish in this clip are feeding on the bottom, probably a worm or small shrimp for their meal. See if you can find them!

I'm excited to share our new Snake River Trip with you. These are my original home waters - where I spent twenty years fishing and guiding every section of the Snake River. We are part of a large family of guides and outfitters from the area - one special relationship has been with Three Rivers Ranch in Idaho. This trip features their overnight camp trip - one of my all time favorite trips! Located in the roadless section of the South Fork of the Snake, the steep basalt canyon walls allow you to get lost on river time. I love the gravel bars and swinging wet flies, but really the dry fly fishing is something I rarely see on other rivers. Pale morning duns, caddis, stoneflies and wild trout feeding with their heads poking out of the water, almost with a gulp! I used to run into a lot of rocks with my boat because I got so excited watching good drifts get eaten. Hypnotizing really.

In just a few weeks presents will be flying around the globe. We hope you can find a special gift from Reel Women Fly Fishing Adventures. Because that is a gift that keeps giving! And on that note, I know there have been a lot of Go Fund Me campaigns, this a first for me. My friends came to me for help and now I'm asking those who have wanted to help, to extend your graciousness for Chef's for Hire. Any small token is greatly appreciated, thank you. We expect the San Pedro community to be able to bounce back, but it will be some time and so, my Belizean friends are very grateful for your support.

It's December! We have so much to look forward to - Winter Solstice and some very special holidays. Thank you for allowing us to reach you as 2020 starts to wind down. And yes, let's "Cast to our Dreams!" L-A

Snake River -Idaho & Jackson Hole, WY August 9-12, 2021

Spend two days in the Canyon of the Snake River with Three Rivers Ranch guides and their luxury campsite. The South Fork of the Snake river has a population of well over 4,000 fish per mile; wild cutthroats averaging 14"-16" as well as rainbows and hybrids. Then there are the Browns that average much larger -occasionally more than 10 pounds. The Idaho State record brown trout weighed in at 26 pounds!

You'll appreciate the luxury campsite Three Rivers offers in the Canyon with canvas wall tents, cots and mattresses, hot water delivered to your tent in the evening and morning, carpeted wood floors, sleeping bags with sheets and polar fleece..... and yes, a hot shower is available too! Then there is the food! Upon arrival at camp you'll have access to a full bar and hors d'oeuvres. Relax and watch for eagles, moose, deer, elk and other wildlife who will share the canyon with you. A prime Rib-Eye steak will be grilled to your specifications with all the fixings. The next morning you'll awaken to a true western camp breakfast with eggs, Idaho potatoes, fresh fruit, meats and coffee and juice!

Then we'll drive up to Jackson Hole Wyoming and fish with the amazing team at Snake River Anglers. There is no place like Jackson Hole and you'll get to experience it all. We'll spend the first day in the canyon of the Snake in Bridger Teton National Forest. If you have not floated this section, there is nothing like the fresh air and pine trees surrounding you as you pull those fish in the boat. Then we'll end our trip with a spectacular day fishing and floating through Grand Teton National Park. The views of the Teton's are amazing, and we'll warn you, its tempting to stop fishing and just take it all in! Well over 95 percent of the trout on this river are native Snake River Fine-Spotted Cutthroat trout and Yellowstone Cutthroat trout.

This incredible package includes 5 nights and 4 days of world class fishing on the Snake River. You'll have the chance to see wildlife and views only Idaho and Wyoming can offer; and the memories to last a life time. Cast to Your Dreams! Double Occupancy $3,395 or Single Occupancy* $3,695. *Additional fees for single tents.
